

The NEW HT682

High Performance, High Value

The new HT682 handheld computer is faster, stronger, and more powerful than ever before. Unitech is proud to build off the success of the previous HT680 handheld by upgrading the device with all new features. It's equipped with extra memory, a lightning-fast processor, and Windows CE 6.0 Pro to automate your data collection applications quickly and efficiently.

The new HT682 is protected with an IP65 environmental seal, enabling it to withstand even the roughest of working environments. Dust, moisture, and even water spills are no match for the HT682, decreasing overall downtime. By keeping your workflow uninterrupted, the HT682 offers an outstanding return on your investment and reduces total cost of ownership more than ever before.
