Soldi Smart
Compact currency detector

The fear of receiving counterfeit money at the point of sale always leads to unpleasant moments during the daily cash transactions. The Soldi Smart is extremely reliable due to the 100% detection of counterfeit banknotes. The device is easy to use and tests, fast and reliable, Euro banknotes directly at the point of sale. The automatic counterfeit detection provides a precise result. A staff training for the recognition of the security features is no longer necessary. The result of the test is indicated acoustically, through a warning signal, as well as visually, through a symbol. The device can be placed almost anywhere due to its compact format. The Soldi Smart is ideal for the mobile use thanks to the rechargeable battery (additionally available). The easy-to-open cover facilitates the removal of either jammed banknotes or dirt. In addition, the Soldi Smart has a USB interface for the software updates.
